

Year Two Events beyond living Memory – Remembrance Day and Guido Fawkes and Commonwealth Day

Knowledge	Key Skills	Vocabulary	Key Places/People
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> History is a study of the past History is the beginning of measured time to the present History affects us all We all have a personal history What remembrance day is How we remember Why we remember Who Guy Fawkes and King James were The plan to blow up parliament Why did they want to blow up parliament The events of the gunpowder plot Why do we still celebrate What is the commonwealth When did the commonwealth come into existence Why was it created How many countries are in the commonwealth Name some of the countries in the commonwealth How often are the commonwealth games held 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Use information to describe the past Describe differences between then and now Give reasons for peoples actions in the past Recount a particular historical event Ask and answer questions about the past Know there are different views about the past Use information to make own decision about historical events Understand how to place events on a timeline using a given scale Use a range of resources to interpret the past Describe people and events in history Effectively communicate ideas about a historical period, historical event or a person from a historical period. 	Past Present Memory History Study Timeline Symbol Memorial Remembrance War Conflict Gunpowder Plot Parliament Monarch Democracy Discrimination Protestant Catholic Commonwealth Games Athletes Country Capital Landmark Speech Diverse Unified	Britain France Flanders Belgium London Parliament James 1 st of England and VI of Scotland Guy Fawkes

